

The Perfect School

1 Listen to the story.

1 Rafit is a new student from Bangladesh. Jim and Laura show him the school.

2 First, they take him to the school library. "Wow! In my old school we haven't got a big library," says Rafit.

3 Then they go to the music room. Rafit is very surprised. "We haven't got a music room in my old school."

4 In the computer lab, Rafit sees all the computers. "We've got computers in my school, too," he says.

5 At lunchtime they go to the canteen and they have lunch. Then, they go outside to play.

6 "You're very lucky. This school is beautiful!" says Rafit. "You're very lucky, too! Welcome to your new school!" says Jim.
