

Word of the Month: EASY-GOING

By Sarah Gudgeon

1 Tick six adjectives that can be used to describe a friend.

Kind funny delicious sweet honest loyal easy-going

2 Write each adjective next to the correct definition.

- a. Always tells the truth.
- b. Makes you laugh.
- c. Is always calm and relaxed
- d. Is gentle and caring
- e. Helps you and shares things too

3 Write five sentences about things a friend should not be or things they should not do. Use a dictionary to help you. For example:

A friend should not say horrible things about you behind your back.

- 1. _____
- 2. _____
- 3. _____
- 4. _____
- 5. _____

4 Describe your best friend. Describe his/ her good and bad qualities. Write about the stuff you do together.

Use these prompts to help you.

My best friend is called _____

He/ She is _____ (good qualities) but sometimes he/ she is _____ (bad qualities).

We usually _____

Answer Key

By Sarah Gudgeon

1

Tick all of them apart from 'delicious'. Delicious is used to describe really good food.

2

- a. Always tells the truth. HONEST
- b. Makes you laugh. FUNNY
- c. Is always calm and relaxed EASY-GOING
- d. Is gentle and caring SWEET
- e. Helps you and shares things too KIND

3 Example sentences.

- 1. A friend should not be jealous of your achievements.
- 2. A friend should not steal your boyfriend/ girlfriend.
- 3. A friend should not be bad-tempered or impatient when you need help.
- 4. A friend should not talk all the time and never listen to you.
- 5. A friend should not be embarrassed by you.