Carnivals Around the World

By Sarah Gudgeon

I. Read

It's carnival time! Singing, dancing and dressing-up. We do all of these things at Carnival in Italy. Lots of tourists visit Venice at carnival time. They like to see the elaborate masks and watch the locals walk along the canals. But people celebrate carnival in lots of countries. So where are the best carnivals in the world? Well, obviously, Italy, but Brazil, America and Trinidad and Tobago also organise famous street parties at this time of year. In Rio de Janeiro, people wear bright costumes with feathers in their hair and dance the samba; in New Orleans, the people on the floats throw beads to the watching crowds and in Trinidad and Tobago, they play steelpans to produce vibrant music that everyone dances to. One thing that all carnivals have in common is colour and noise and fun!

Glossary

dressing-up: mettere costumi

locals: gli abitanti della zona feathers: piume

floats: carri da parata

3. Answer this question

beads: collane di perline

steelpans: strumento metallico a percussione

2. Underline all the adjectives in the text

Which countries have famous carnivals?

Photocopiable ©Sanoma Italia S.p.a.

4. Write a postcard to a friend

You are in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil. Describe the carnival. Use theses prompts plus the adjectives from exercise 2 to help you.

Dear(name of friend)
Carnival in Brazil is (choose adjectives)
Love,
(your name)

Photocopiable ©Sanoma Italia S.p.a.

Teacher's Notes

- 2. It's carnival time! Singing, dancing and dressing-up. We do all of these things at Carnival in Italy. Lots of tourists visit Venice at carnival time. They like to see the elaborate masks and watch the locals walk along the canals. But people celebrate carnival in lots of countries. So where are the best carnivals in the world? Well, obviously, Italy, but Brazil, America and Trinidad and Tobago also organise famous street parties at this time of year. In Rio de Janeiro, people wear bright costumes with feathers in their hair and dance the samba; in New Orleans, the people on the floats throw beads to the watching crowds and in Trinidad and Tobago, they play steelpans to produce vibrant music that everyone dances to. One thing that all carnivals have in common is colour and noise and fun!
- 3. Italy, Brazil, America and Trinidad and Tobago.
- 4. Sample answer

Dear Anna,

Carnival in Brazil is great! There are lots of people on the floats. They dress-up in bright, elaborate costumes, with feathers in their hair. The music is very vibrant and I love the samba!

Love,

Jules x