

Word Wildlife Day Worksheet

1. Put these animals in the right column in the table.

Cats elephants tigers dogs hamsters rhinos budgies marine turtles

Wild	Domestic

2. Write the names of the animals under the pictures. Use the words in exercise 1 to help you.

a.

b.

c.

d.

3. Read. Match the questions and answers.

Word Wildlife Day Worksheet

1. When is World Wildlife day?
 - a. To celebrate wild animals and fauna and to raise awareness.
2. When was the first World Wildlife Day?
 - b. Hunting and illegal trade. Environmental change.s
3. Why do we have World Wildlife Day?
 - c..Because they are endangered species
4. Why do we have to protect some animals?
 - d. On the 3rd March
5. What are the risks for some wild animals?
 - e. In 2013

4. The animals in exercise 3 are all endangered species. Mandy chooses to adopt an elephant.

I want to adopt an elephant because I love elephants.
Elephants are kind and intelligent.

5.Choose an animal to adopt. Say why.

I want to adopt a because

- 6. Speak to a partner. Tell them the name of the animal you want to adopt and why.

Interested in adopting an animal? Go to www.worldwildlife.org

Word Wildlife Day Worksheet

Teacher's Notes

1.

Wild	Domestic
elephants	cats
tigers	dogs
rhinos	hamsters
Marine turtles	budgies

2.

a. rhinos b. tigers c. elephants d. marine turtles

3.

1.d 2. e 3a 4c 5b

4. Before doing this exercise, elicit the personality traits of different wild animals. Write them on the board and match them to different animals.

5&6. Students can choose any endangered species. A good cross curricular activity could be to get the students to prepare a mini-project on endangered species. More info on www.worldwildlife.org