St. David's Day Worksheet

2. Pair reading.

Student A. Read this text and then tell your partner about it.

Wales is part of Britain and the United Kingdom. It has its own language, education system and parliament. Although Wales is only a small country, about half the size of Switzerland, it has a strong national heritage. Sheep farming is very important to the Welsh economy and sheep can be seen dotted all over the hilly landscape. Welsh lamb is considered to be among the best and the country also produces a good selection of cheeses. This little country along the west coast of Great Britain is also a popular holiday destination, especially with hill walkers and their dogs.

Student B. Read this text and then tell your partner about it.

The symbol of Wales known the world over is The Red Dragon and people proudly wave this flag on St. David's Day. St. David is the patron Saint of Wales. He helped the Welsh people to defeat the Saxons and so every year they celebrate his life and everything he did for Wales 1st March. This is the date that St David died in 589 AD. They go out onto the streets, organise parades and concerts and can be seen wearing daffodils and leeks, the national emblems, on their clothes. If you want to find out more about this country, why not take a trip there. The countryside is breathtaking and to see some examples of Welsh traditional costumes and other artefacts be sure to go the National Museum in Cardiff.
