Discussion activities key

1 Students can see a submarine moving through the ocean in the picture. The submarine is surrounded by fish and other deep-sea creatures. Some students might point out that the shape in the submarine's 'eye' looks like a person. Students should work out that the story will take place underwater, and that it will be filled with undersea adventures.

2 Possible answer:

When did the giant whale first appear?

In 1866.

How big was it?

A hundred metres long.

How high did it send water into the air?

Fifty metres.

What does it have on its head?

A spear.

How fast did it move in the water?

Very quickly.

3 Students should recognise that the men are on a ship in the ocean. They are looking at something in the water. They seem to feel interested and excited.

4–5 Open answers

6 Possible answers:

Captain Nemo is good because he gives gold to unhappy people and he teaches Aronnax about the sea.

Captain Nemo is bad because he doesn't let the men go free and he kills hundreds of seamen.
